

In Sevastopol, the best athletes at the end of 2024 were awarded

The event was held at the School named after S. Urusov

Lev Melikyan, Maxim Ermolenko, Anna Andrianova, Elena Zaikova (all - up to 9 years old);

Rozhnov Gleb, Kosta Alena (both - up to 11 years old);

Grechkin Mikhail, Gorelik Anastasia (both - up to 13 years old);

Vladislav Sazonov, Dorina Alkhalabiya (both under 15 years old);

Marchenko Maria, Togobitsky Andriy, Nesterenko Vladislav (all - under 17 years old);

Dmitry Gataullin ("Strong in Spirit" among persons with disabilities);

Tatyana Petruk (among women and chess popularization);

Irina Tsymbal (among women);

Vyacheslav Rud (for active work with veterans and refereeing competitions);

Andrey Danilchuk (for assistance in conducting and refereeing competitions).

The event ended with a blitz tournament, the winner of which, having scored 11 out of 11 points, was Alexander Ivanov. The second place with 8.5 points went to FIDE master Boris Rozhin, the third place with the same result was taken by Andrey Togobitsky.

In additional nominations:

under 14 years old: 1st place - Vladislav Nesterenko, 2nd place - Vladislav Sazonov, 3rd place - Leonidas Arysyanov and Denis Zarva; among women - 1st place - Petruk Tatiana, 2nd place - Vlada Smirnova, 3rd place - Anastasia Gorelik.

Information and photos provided by the Chess Federation of the city of Sevastopol