

The film "At the Edge of the Abyss" was shown in Donetsk

We call on regional federations to follow suit

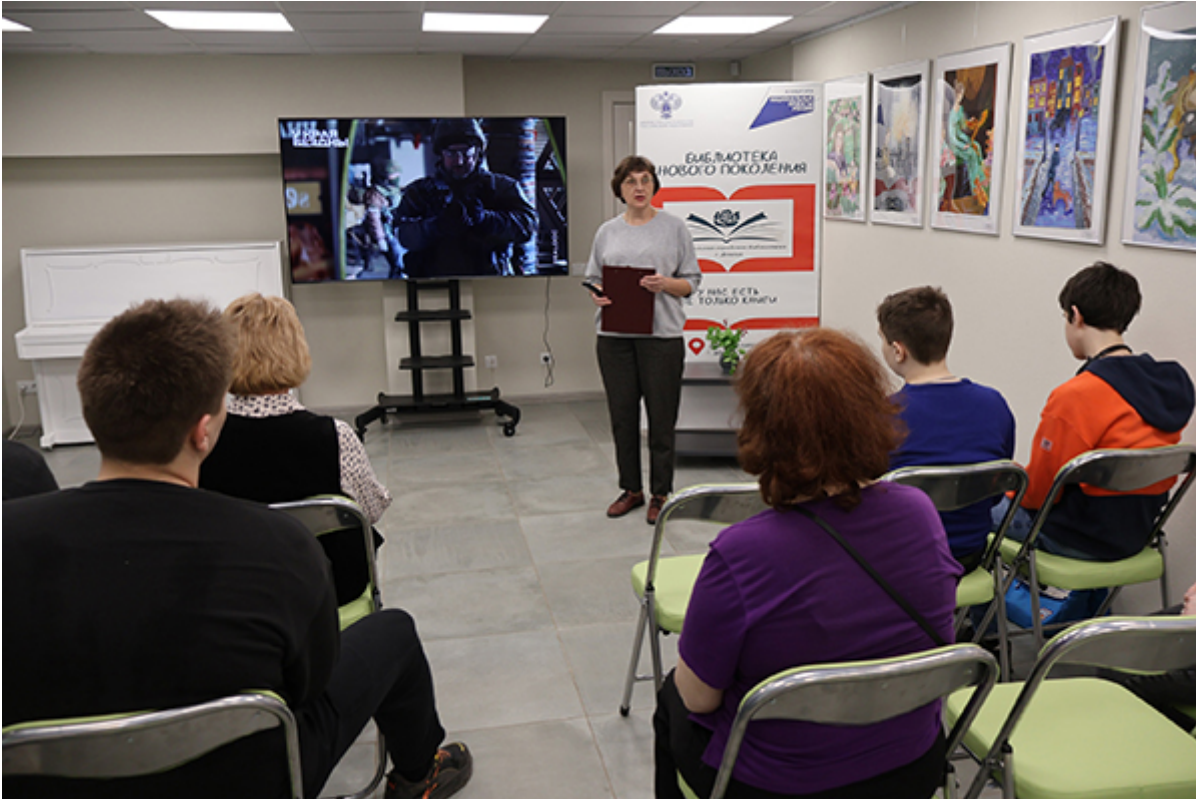

Photo: Library system for adults in Donetsk

On Thursday, April 3, the Central City Library of Donetsk hosted a film screening of Maxim Fadeev's documentary film "At the Edge of the Abyss" for members of the Donetsk City Chess and Draughts Club and library readers. After the screening, the participants honored the memory of all the fallen defenders of our region with a minute of silence.

The event ended with a discussion, during which they shared their thoughts and experiences, talked about the importance of preserving historical memory and how important it is to support our soldiers fighting for our future. Poems were also heard.

Recall

that on February 21, the Chess Federation of the Sverdlovsk Region (President Andrey Simanovsky) became the first regional chess federation to support the initiative of the CFR President Andrey Filatov and organized the screening of the film "At the Edge of the Abyss" in Yekaterinburg.

On February 17, the film was shown at the Central House of Chess Players named after M. Botvinnik in Moscow and also aroused keen interest among the audience.

The Chess Federation of Russia invites all regional chess federations to organize a screening of this film in their regions.