A tournament in memory of Andrei Paliy was held in Sevastopol

With the support of the Governor of the city

The competition, dedicated to the memory of the Deputy Commander of the Black Sea Fleet, Captain 1st Rank Andrei Nikolaevich Paliy, was organized by the Sports Department of Sevastopol together with the Chess Federation of the city with the assistance of the Naval School named after P. Nakhimov.

At the opening, the participants were greeted by: Deputy Governor of Sevastopol Igor Mikhchev, Chairman of the Legislative Assembly of Sevastopol Vladimir Nemtsev, First Deputy Commander of the Black Sea Fleet Vice Admiral Ildar Akhmerov, Head of the branch of the State Fund for Support of Participants of the Special Military Operation "Defenders of the Fatherland" of the city of Sevastopol Elena Anisimova.

The head of the sports department of Sevastopol, Sergey Reznichenko, presented special prizes "For love and devotion to chess" to the teachers of the Nakhimov School, Leonid Mikhailovich Krasnov (he recently celebrated his 88th anniversary) and Alexander Fedorovich Mironov, who turned 75 at the beginning of the year.

112 chess fans from the DPR and LPR, the Krasnodar Territory, Moscow, the Moscow and Ryazan regions, the Republic of Crimea and the city of Sevastopol took part in the three tournaments. Representatives of all generations participated, the difference between the oldest participant, Leonid Krasnov, born in 1937, and the youngest born in 2019 was 82 years!

During the tournament, a tour of the school named after P. Nakhimov was organized with a visit to the museum of the school and the auditorium named after Andrei Paliy. Everyone could play in a simultaneous game session with grandmaster Alexander Ivanov. On the final day of the event, the participants of the competition took part in laying flowers at the bust of Andriy Paliy on the Alley of Heroes in Victory Park and honored the memory of the deceased with a minute of silence.
