

Regional stages of "White Rook" and "Debut" took place in Lugansk

These tournaments were held in the republic for the first time

On March 27-30, the republican chess competitions "White Rook" and "Debut" among the teams of educational organizations were held in Lugansk for the first time. And although there were few teams, the fight was stubborn, especially in the junior tournament.

The team of the SBEI LPR "Gymnasium No 30 named after K. Fesenko" consisting of: Ivan Kalachev, Ilya Sheiko, Mikhail Bondarenko, Marya Popova, team coach Evgeny Ilyich Resin won and won the right to participate in the All-Russian final of the "White Rook".

The "Debut" competition was won by the team of the GBOU LPR "LSSH No 19" consisting of: Goncharov Prokhor, Ovchinnikova Anna, Kutarov Daniil, Sharamet Alexandra, coach of the team Pogorelov Igor Gennadievich. They won the right to represent the LPR at the All-Russian competitions "Debut", which will be held in June this year.

All winners of the competition were awarded commemorative diplomas, gold medals, team diplomas and cups from the Ministry of Sports of the LPR.

All members of the teams that entered the top three in each of the competitions received a gift from the LPR Chess Federation - various items of sports equipment. These were soccer and volleyball balls, badminton and table tennis rackets, modern expanders.

We thank the participants, coaches and school principals who prepared chess squads for these important competitions!
